NUMBER 23

Yaquina Pioneer Passes Away

Newport, Oregon, Special—George King one of the early pioneers of Yaquina Bay died at his home in Oyster City, July 24th, 1916 of organic heart disease, aged 72 years, 4 months and five days. Mr. King was a native of Yorkshire England, born, March 19, 1844. He came to America in 1867, settling in Minnesota where he worked a few months in the saw-mills. In September 1871 he came to Portland, Oregon, where he worked along the coast helping to build light-houses and in the fall of 1873 he came to the Bay locating at Oyster City, where he lived continuously up to the time of his death, engaging in various occupations. He owned some valuable oysterbeds which he worked for 40 years. In 1874, Mr. King was united in marriage to Miss Rachel Craigie, to this union, four children were born, Elizabeth C. is the wife of John Hanlon, Byrle W. who is in the Life Saving Crew at Newport, Nellie Violet is a teacher and Mary Gladys, who lives with her parents at home. Mr. King was County Commissioner for four years and served for three years on the Port Commission Board. He was a careful, painstaking county official and looked well after the interests of the people. He was educated in the common schools of England and was therefore well qualified to fill the various public positions that he held. He was successful in business and left his family well provided for. He was a member of the Episcopal Church and a Mason and was a member of Blue Lodge No. 55, of Newport and was for a long time Master Mason and one of the main pillars of the Lodge. He was a great reader and well posted in the affairs of the country and a leader in all public affairs of the community in which he lived. He took great interest in the awful war that is going on in Europe and believed it would be better for liberty and the world if the Allies should win out. The funeral took place Wednesday at 2 o'clock. A short service was held at the Hollingsworth and Hartley Undertaking Parlors conducted by Rev. E. T. Simpson, Rector of the Episcopal Church and the services at the cemetery were conducted by the Masonic Lodge of which deceased was a member. The funeral was largely attended by friends and neighbors. Mr. King knew for long he could not live, he set his house in order, conversed cheerfully and freely with his neighbors and family during the day as he sat on the lounge, and when all were gone except his little grandson, Cederick, he fell over to one side, the little boy trying to hold him up but no, without a struggle or a pain he passed to the great beyond. "Like one that draws his drapery about him and lies down to pleasant dreams". Many of his oldest and dearest friends had passed away during the winter—Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Abbey, Ira Hampton and Jack Cahill and he has gone to join them as he hoped and believe, in a far better country than this. Hall and farewell.

Mr. King was the government expert on the propagation and cultivation of the Eastern oyster sent out to be planted in the Yaquina Bay. His experiment proved successful and he developed the industry and thousands of dollars will be made from it. He was engineer while putting in the jetties at the mouth of the Bay. He helped to build the lighthouse at Cape Foulweather and he held many important positions during his long residence on the Bay. He was of the old school, his word was as good as a bond. His honor was beyond question. The following Toledo Masons and their wives were at the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ball, Mr. and Mrs. James Galtner, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. George McCluskey, R. P. Goin, Bob Mann, Ted McElwain, R. S. Van Cleave and some others whose names I did not get. Bert Geer, F. N. Hayden and J. F. Stewart. Elk City—Chester Dixon; Beaver Creek—A. W. Webber and John Bowers; Lufjens—Capt. Henry Nice. Seldom if ever has such a large procession passed through the city of Newport. It attested the esteem in which George King was held by the people.

fly and will remain here all summer and will make fishing and pleasure excursions over the bar twice daily, leaving the wharf at 8 A. M. and 2 P. M. She is built after the model of the Ollie S but a much nicer boat. She was built at Astoria about ten months ago and is well equipped with fishing tackle and life belts, will carry 175 passengers and has a Standard engine with 40 horsepower. She will also make moonlight excursions on the bay. This will be a great convenience to the public who want to take these delightful excursions over the bar deep sea fishing. The boat is perfect and the captain is an experienced seaman.

The Chautauqua program closed Friday evening. The big tent was crowded—every seat was taken and a great many had to stand during the exercises. A large number of people came from Siletz, Toledo, Yaquina and Waldport. The real drawing card was the Hawaiian Quintet under the direction of Joseph Kekuku who is the originator of the celebrated Steel method of playing the guitar. This music is said to be the best of its kind in the world and from the applause the Hawaiian musicians and singers received it was appreciated at Newport. Every number on the program was good and the people of Newport have a month to decide whether the chautauqua will be brought back next season or not.

The Relief Captain Miner came up from Sluslaw Monday with his fam-

YAQUINA

Quite a crowd from Yaquina attended the dance at the Cannery last Saturday evening. A most enjoyable time was reported by all. The eats were especially good and the music was excellent. Several new dances were demonstrated during the evening.

Mrs. J. E. Jacobson, wife of the station agent, and little daughter, Evelyn Hazel, arrived in Yaquina one day last week. They will make their home here.

Swimming seems to be the leading diversion of the younger set of this town. Most any day—weather permitting—one can see the flash of brightly colored caps cresting the waves as the bathers disport themselves in the brine.

Mrs. L. E. Casteel has been remodeling and repairing the hotel. Many of the rooms have been made lighter, new paper has freshened their appearance and last but not least, it has been almost entirely reshingled.

Interested spectators greet the boats, Orabelle and Pilgrim when they arrive in the evening loaded with their burden of deep sea fish. The catch recently has been very good.

News of George King's death reached here Monday evening. Yaquina extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Casteel and daughter of Portland arrived for a visit with Mr. Casteel's parents, Mrs. Casteel will visit for a few days at the Hassman farm.

Many theories, love-sickness, sea-sickness, presence of mermaids and sharks, etc. are advanced in answer to the question—Why did Enoch Olson in broad day light Sunday, run the Nenamoshia on the sand between buoys 10 and 12? Anxious onlookers extend a vote of thanks to the crew of the Orabelle who rescued him.

Mrs. H. Klock, wife of the brakeman on the C. & E., and son, Ronald, of Portland, are staying at the hotel. They will probably make their home here.

ONA

Quite a number of the people of this vicinity attended the picnic on Upper Beaver Sunday and all enjoyed a very pleasant day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Commons and Mrs. Faye Wolfersperger and son, Alan, were at Yaquina Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilhouse and daughter, Louise of Jefferson, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. C. M. Myers of this place.

A. W. and W. C. Weber were at Newport Wednesday.

H. J. Wood has been laid up the past few days with a sore arm which he injured while working in the timber.

L. L. Parks and son, Alton, were at Poole Slough Friday.

Lloyd Commons and Mrs. Faye Wolfersperger were at Waldport Tuesday having some dental work done.

GLEN

The Watkins man is back again. Did your hay get wet?—is the general question of this neighborhood.

Mrs. W. R. Moore is seriously ill.

J. W. Davenport went to Toledo, Saturday.

Alva Moore went to Elk City last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Davenport is able to be around again after a two weeks sickness.

Mrs. J. E. Crooks and Mrs. J. W. Davenport called on Mrs. W. R. Moore one day last week.

Alva Moore went to Toledo Wednesday.

CHITWOOD

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher of Chitwood, a fine big strapping boy, a few days ago. It's fun to see "daddy" Fletcher go strutting around and looking happy. It makes him forget about the high cost of living, who our next president will be or that war is brewing in Mexico. Good luck to "daddy" Fletcher.

The sun am a shin' and the skies am blue again and the Chitwood rustlers are again trying to make hay while the sun shines.

Last Friday a large swarm of bees, evidently wild ones, flew from the great unknown and lit in one of Kurtichanov's bee hives that stood waiting for such homeless bugs, and were politely ushered in by Prof. J. C.

Mrs. Cora Weaver and son, Floyd, from Buttermilk camp visited with Mrs. R. R. Wilson Sunday and Monday they called on Mrs. Kurtichanov.

Last Sunday the Chitwood Bachelor club met at the home of Charlie Olson. The Club consisted of Harald Hansen, Fred Olson, Ralph Wilson and J. C. Kurtichanov, all who are young and good looking.

T. Kurtichanov sold some oat hay to the teamsters at Buttermilk camp.

G. L. Landess and Son are building them a brand new house; the perfectly good architect answers to the name of M. L. Brown also of Portland.

We are sad to hear that Marshall Smiths family is contemplating on moving to Monmouth in the near future, but no matter, they want to see a Smith there too as they are a scarce article now.

The new road around Pioneer mountain is almost ready for travel and the autos can soon be speeding that way. The road is sure a credit to our worthy "boss", Phil Elting.

The Cook Shack at the camp is deserted now so the poor bachelors will have to shift for themselves now.

Wallis Miller was seen in this vicinity the other day.

E. A. Wildman, the strawberry wizard has completed his strawberry harvest and says that he had an exceptionally good crop this year and his returns were handsome. Now there is a great opportunity for some sweet maiden to make the most of the Leap Year chances by sending him an offer or better call in person at Riverside Fruit Farm, near Chitwood.

SALADO

Haying is still going on here but the beautiful fog keeps us scared of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort Hodges departed for the logging camps at Mill City Monday morning.

J. L. Fisher is hauling hay for C. A. Brown.

We note that smartly of Riverside V. got very much peayed at the article from here concerning the Deer Creek celebration. Now everybody from Elk City to Harlan knows smartly or the Oregon Bat that acts as he is known by the young folks. Now if he will have his mother read carefully that article he will see that I very plainly stated that the article was handed to me as the reporter from here and if any one wishes to call this party down I will furnish their name for same as I don't want to criticize anyone till they deserve it so don't start something you can't stop.

CHITWOOD

Everyone is busy now days making hay while the sun shines.

Mrs. I. J. Pepin returned from Corvallis this week where she has been taking treatments.

J. C. Kurtichanov was a Toledo visitor last Wednesday.

Prof. R. E. Wood of Orton passed thru Chitwood Tuesday.

Chas. Olson and John Kurtichanov have been helping Ezra Steinmetz with his haying the last few days.

Mr. Floyd Pepin of the city of Chitwood is talking of buying him a twelve cylinder Packard auto in the near future? He is very prosperous and understands the auto business very well. He may build a garage on main street.

Mr. Ernest Cook was at Corvallis a few days ago getting ready to bring in his new auto.

Miss Lily Miller of Pioneer visited with Mrs. Ezra Steinmetz last Tuesday.

A mistake was made in the announcement that a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher of Chitwood. There was no boy at all; it was only a girl.

Mrs. Pollen and Mrs. Stella Fry from Buttermilk camp called on Mrs. Kurtichanov last Sunday.

Darwin Watts and Paul Washington both of Siletz are working on the road.

Bill Elting is in a critical condition, as he is suffering from the "shivers", what ever it is it is having a terrible effect on him.

ORTON

E. M. Fraizer, W. C. Orton and Henry Cerina were over to Toledo on business the 18th.

Arthur Bell is now working for E. T. Raddant driving one of the teams.

Bull Summers has quit the road and is now clearing land for G. W. Cox and P. H. Elting.

A dance was given in the new building of school dist. 69, on the 18th, 52 people attended.

Homer Evans and family came over on the 16th, from the road camp to attend to some school business on Monday the 17th, returning Wednesday.

L. Callahan and Ruth Evans were visitors at the road camp the 18th and 19th.

Mr. John Werner of this place, who has been touring the Middle West, is now the guest of John Scullin of Philadelphia, the brother of Miss Cecilia Scullin and Mrs. E. M. Fraizer of Orton.

John Albert took a load of chittim bark to Toledo, returning with a load of goods for the Orton Merchantile Co.

A. P. Johnson, who is working in Corvallis made a visit to Orton.

Lester Waugh of Toledo was over on business during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fraizer gave a farewell dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Depoe on the 20th. Those present were, Mr. W. C. Orton and family, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. Ida Wilson and family and Miss Cecilia Scullin. All reported a good time. The Depoe string quartette gave some good selections.

John Albert took over to Nortons, Harry Robert of the firm of Robert Bros., of Portland, and Jack Hudellison who were on a fishing trip.

Frank Ward and Ben Stewart returned from Portland last Thursday.

Rev. Scudder of Siletz was here Sunday and gave a sermon.

Alfred Lane was up with his automobile last Friday.

Curry and Clark were up from Toledo the 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Evans were in Siletz the 22d on business.

E. T. Raddant had four teams hauling hay—bringing in about 40 acres of good hay and still has about 30 acres to be cut.

WEST YAQUINA

Mr. McPharlen of Beaver Creek arrived Thursday on the noon train from Portland where he has spent the past week visiting his family. He was accompanied home by his son.

Mrs. D. C. Miller and children were Newport visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Commons and daughter, Mrs. Fae Wolfersperger, and baby of Ona were guests at the R. A. Miller home Sunday.

John Covert was in from Beaver Creek Thursday.

Claud Meyers of Beaver Creek was an outbound passenger the first of the week.

The Misses Stella and Olive Willis returned Wednesday from the Wright ranch where they had been staying for some time.

CARD OF THANKS

We the undersigned desire herewith to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly and generously assisted us during the last illness and death of our beloved husband and father, and also for their beautiful floral contributions.

Mrs. Rachel King, Elizabeth C. Hanlon, Burl W. King, Nellie Violet, and Mary Gladys King.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Services will be held at Mrs. A. C. Clark's residence on Fourth street, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject lesson sermon, "Love". All are invited.

REBECCAS INSTALL OFFICERS

The 18th of July, the Rebeccas of Do Good Rebecca Lodge No. 70, installed their officers for the ensuing term: Elma Waugh, N. G., Lila Miller, V. G.; Ida Derrick, Sec.; Anna Ball, Treas. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Howell (installing officer.)

The hall and dining room were beautifully and appropriately decorated. During the banquet, which was fine; one heard from all sides of the table, "My that my capacity were greater". Bingo and other favorite games were resurrected and enjoyed by all. At the time of departure there was but one thought expressed—I hope to be able to come next time.

One That Was There

CHURCH NOTES

A gratifying interest in Church matters is being manifested. Two large congregations greeted the pastor last Sunday. The Sunday School attendance showed an increase over the previous Sunday of nearly 70 per cent. We want every boy and every girl, every man and every woman who are not affiliated with any other Sunday School in the town to come and join our School. We will see that you are put in a suitable class.

The Ladies Aid had a very interesting as well as profitable meeting in the Church parlors, Tuesday afternoon of this week. A large attendance was present. They will have something of importance to announce in the near future.

Sermon Topics for next Sunday are: Morning: "Service". Evening: "Some reasons why a Christian should be the happiest person living". The pastor will read an original poem at the evening service.

Choir practice Friday at 7:45 P. M. In the absence of C. H. Moore, Miss Waugh has kindly consented to direct the choir.

THE FIRST PAPER—AN EXCLUSIVE HISTORICAL ITEM

When Adam's Eve began to do the housekeeping for Adam, she had no cares such as pursue the modern Adam's madam. She did not know what was the wage, because there was no Woman's Page.

She did not get a Daily Hint from Paris full of passion to start her on a daily sprint to keep up with the fashion. She did not haunt the beauty stores in order to keep open pores.

When Adam capered home at night (he was no wearied plodder!) he did not shiver lest he might be served with curious fodder. There were no papers, so you see there was no Household Recipe.

Old Adam was a happy bloke and lived a life most cheery. He did not know that he would choke some day with his bacteria. Adam and Eve had never read Health Articles to scare them dead.

Eve never went through Adam's breaks when he was sweetly dreaming, because there were no Bargain Weeks to tempt her to such scheming. The serpent thought she was a goose. She was too good for any use.

The serpent was a clever brute. Though he'd not been through college, his sanctum made him mighty cute. It was the Tree of Knowledge. "Aha!" he said, "I'll publish free, The Daily Eden Apple Tree!"

The first edition raised a row whose scandal shocked creation. Since that first issue Adam's brow is wet with perspiration. It told the scandal, rich and rare, that Eve had not a thing to wear!

G. E. Frevert, recently of Salt Lake City, was in the city last Saturday inspecting the local Creamery. Mr. Frevert will have charge of the butter exchange which will be established at Portland, August 15th and will handle the output of the local creamery. Mr. Frevert was well pleased with the Toledo plant. On and after August 15th the product of the local plant will be branded "Oregon", instead of "Yaquina Pride" as at present.

A fare of one and one third for the round trip to Marshfield has been made by the Southern Pacific Company for the celebration to be held in that city on the 24 and 25 of August to celebrate the completion of the railroad. Business Men's specials will be run from Portland, Salem, Eugene and San Francisco.

Auto Accident On Pioneer Mt.

The auto driven by C. E. Small of Corvallis went over the grade on the east side of Pioneer mountain Wednesday night about eight o'clock. In the car were Mr. and Mrs. Small and two little children and Mr. R. C. Llewelly all of Corvallis. The auto turned over three times, rolling down the steep embankment for a distance of about seventy five feet and landing right side up. Mr. Small received injuries to his back and Mr. Llewelly sustained a dislocated shoulder and other injuries. Mrs. Small and the children escaping unhurt.

The car which was a new Hudson super six of the sedan type was pretty badly damaged. The glass top being broken off, the fenders bent and twisted and one front wheel broken. The car had only been run about a month.

The car was brought into town by Alger Cooper and is now at the Curry Garage.

WHY NOT A CO-OPERATIVE CANNERY

The Toledo Co-Operative Creamery Association, after a lot of hard work on the part of the promoters, is a substantial and paying institution. And now that it is well on its feet a can- nery is being talked by a number of our progressive farmers up the river.

Mr. Chas. Severson has had some experience in localities where canneries were established and knows them to be a good thing for the farmer if properly managed. At present there is no market at all for the many vegetables and small fruits which grow to perfection in this section. Peas, beans, cabbage, squashes, and pumpkins, can be canned to advantage and no where on earth can they be grown more easily or of a finer quality. The "Loju" industry is making great strides in the Willamette Valley, the Salem and Eugene juice factories putting up thousands of gallons of this delicious and healthful beverage each day, and they cannot begin to supply the demand. Loganberries, of which this popular beverage is made, grow to profusion in Lincoln county. Blackberries grow everywhere on the hillsides and bottoms, here, without even having cultivation.

We believe the Granges should by all means take up the matter of a can- nery and see that it is put through. Arrangements are being made to have J. O. Holt of the Eugene cannery come here and lay the matter before the farmers.

TOLEDO 4-SILETZ 1

The ball game between Siletz and Toledo, played on the latter's grounds Sunday, resulted in the defeat of the Redskins.

With all their former confidence, the Indians stepped to the plate—only to fan the air or tick out an easy grounder to the infield. McMillan held the visitors in his hand all through the game, allowing only four hits, while Reed, the opposing slinger, permitted the town boys to dump the ball all over the lot. Anderson at SS and Ross at second, were the stellar functions of the Toledo team. "Eels made a marvelous one-hand stop and prevented Siletz from scoring in the 6th inning, while Ross made an assist to first, retiring two men 2nd and 3rd.

Siletz saw the game slipping and tried a ninth inning rally, Archie Lane driving out a double to left center, followed by his brother, Al, and Pete Casey, but they all died at the bag.
